CIVIL ACTION LAWSUIT

Charges against the City of Arlington, Arlington
Police Department and the NFL for Racial Harassment, Racial Profiling, Racial Discrimination, Police Bullying and False charges of Ambush Marketing

Violation of the 1964 Civil Rights Act

Racial harassment, Racial Profiling, Racial Discrimination, Police Bullying is illegal. Everyone has the right to live without fear of attack against themselves or their home or property. Several Officers were dispatched from the City of Arlington Code and Compliance department, the City of Arlington Police department and the NFL to disrupt my approved anti-bullying campaign

Located on my private bus which was in a parked position at Lincoln Square in Arlington, Texas prior to Super Bowl kick-off on February 6, 2011. They boarded my private bus illegal without my permission, they demanded my identification, wrote down my License plate number, took photos of my bus and verbally assaulted me,

Later, they paraded me around in front of thousands of Super Bowl fans as if I was a terrorist, three times they sent several squad cars with flashing lights and sirens and later accused me and gave me a citation for "Ambush Marketing" all the while threaten me with arrest. They also said, "I would need to vacate the property within 30 minutes of their departure and if not upon there return, they would have me arrested and my bus towed away from the parking lot at my expense."

They also indicated if I did not show up to court for the citation that was issued for "Ambush Marketing" a warrant will be issued

My Civil rights were violated because they targeted me as an African-American who owns a 45 foot long mobile educational media and gaming lab Bus. The exterior vehicle wrap of the bus features images of black hip hop stars, a local 97.9 DJ and myself.

These images are used as an attraction to capture the students hearts and minds that are enrolled in my after-school mentoring program. I teach educational music video production to students of all races and ages. All four sides feature black faces. At the time of the confrontation, the bus was positioned about 2 blocks from the Stadium in the heart of the Super Bowl traffic with a mostly white street audience.

Pam Dawson, the property manager for Lincoln Square who happens to be white, indicated to me, "the officers said to her the signage on the bus that features all black faces was offensive and the bus should be removed from the parking lot."

This was their justification for their harassment and citation.

A similar bus/truck also had a vehicle wrap and was positioned within a few hundred feet of my vehicle promoting Plains Bank, a white owned bank. In addition, Coors beer had a similar banner opposite of my lab posted on an exterior wall of the Ross department store. Neither of these white businesses were targeted for their so called "Clean Zone" ambush marketing charge nor given a ticket and told to leave or be removed from the lot.

In addition, there were thousands of white scalpers roaming the same parking lot but was not targeted.

The Civil Rights Act of 1964 bans discrimination based on race, color, religion, gender or national origin. Included in the Act were the prohibition of discrimination in hotels, motels and prohibition of government agencies from denying access to public facilities on the basis of race, religion, gender or ethnicity and the prevention of discrimination by government agencies that receive federal funding.

These federal agencies caused extreme humiliation, embarrassment threatening confrontations and intimidation to my staff and me.

This confrontation was witnessed by hundreds of thousands of people in the area as they bullied me by racially profiling me and causing damage to my reputation and revenue while the World media was present.

This unfair treatment conducted by these law officials, included but not limited to excessive show of force, racial profiling and Coercion.

They specifically targeted me and my bus because of my race with their words and actions designed to make me feel degraded and defeated.

They also invited a response from me for ensnarement purposes by engaging in overly loud and threatening conversations with me during there three visits to my bus.

The threat of arrest if I did not remove my bus caused me to pack up and leave prior to Super Bowl kick-off after having my bus present there for the past 3 days in the same spot.

There have been numerous documented past cases involving racial harassment and discrimination in Arlington, Texas and this is just another example of why there is a need for light to be shed on this case and other racial activities that have been administered by the City of Arlington and its police department.

I am suing the City of Arlington because they directed their code and compliance officers to pursue and racially harass me. I am suing the Arlington Police for carrying out the City of Arlington directive to racially profile me.

I am suing the NFL for establishing the climate, environment and City of Arlington ordinance that lead to the "Clean Zone" confrontation that was the epicenter for the Racial Harassment,

Racial Profiling, Racial Discrimination, Police Bullying and False charges of Ambush Marketing.

Best Buy and Lincoln Square were both partners who allowed my Anti-bullying campaign to be staged in their private lot.

On numerous occasions during the confrontation, the property manager for Lincoln Square and Best Buy managers were summoned to the confrontation scene and they informed the officers on three occasions that I had complete support and approval and no need for a permit from the owners of the property or the city to have my bus position in their lot.

However, the officers still demanded I vacate the property immediately because of the so-called offensive signage on my bus or face arrest and I was given a ticket to appear in court with the threat of a possible warrants.
